

Club Captain

The Club Captain is a role model at any club. They are the link between the players and the administration. Representing the views of players, and taking responsibility for their performance on and off the field, the Club Captain provides advice and guidance and should promote players interests in the development and direction of the club.

Above all this is an extremely enjoyable and respected post, the highpoint of any playing career. The administrative and people skills are transferable to any walk of life, and as a representative of younger people's views in the game, there is significant opportunity to get the satisfaction of doing something truly worthwhile.

The Club Captain will need to be:

- Enthusiastic and dedicated
- Confident and good at communicating
- Committed to fair play
- Familiar with the club and players

What you'll do:

- Represent players on the Management Committee and Disciplinary Committee
- Lead, advise and support fellow team mates
- Help pick the team
- Make sure other players behave themselves on and off the field
- Make players aware of administrative arrangements
- Check pre-match arrangements have been made, such as registering players, checking availability and completing match cards
- Collect match fees from players where necessary
- Help the coach organise training and player development
- Encourage players and other club members to get involved with voluntary work and social activities at the club
- Welcome new members, visiting teams and referees

How much time it will take up:

About 10 hours a week, made up of 5 hours of training and playing, 3 hours of team selection and 2 hours of development work.
