

TOR RUGBY CLUB

Club Coaching Coordinator

What the Coaching Coordinator does for your club:

- Make sure each team has adequate coaching staff to grow and develop
- Promote coach education and development
- Proactively identify new prospective coaches and ensure they have the support they need to succeed

The role:

- Identify, recruit and develop coaches ensuring sufficient and appropriate coaching staff are assigned to each team (including illness cover)
- Establish the needs of club coaches and signpost them to relevant courses and continuing personal development
- Take a long term view that allows coaches to develop with a team over time
- Act as a point of contact for the RFU, Constituent Bodies and club coaches
- Ensure your contact details are registered and updated on the RFU Game Management System (GMS)
- Understand and publicise the RFU coaching courses and local coaching events
- Encourage the sharing and spread of best practice between coaches at different levels
- Design and lead the implementation of a suitable club coach development plan
- Gather playing and coaching information from the club to aid national research projects.

The Coaching Coordinator will need to be:

- A player or ex-player who can recognise good coaching skills
- Enthusiastic and persuasive
- A strong communicator
- Well-organised and resourceful
- Approachable, encouraging and good with people

What you'll get out of it:

This role directly influences success and the standard of rugby at all levels of the club. Recruiting the right coaches and seeing a team develop under them takes real skill and knowledge of the game.

How much time it will take up:

About 1-2 hours per week.
